MORE MAY JOIN FIGHT

By United Press.

St. Louis, Mo., May 8.—Eight hundred representatives of the Order of Railroad Conductors of America met here today for their first triennial convention.

There was much speculation as to whether they would vote to join the hundreds of thousands of other trainmen now threatening to strike if their wage demands are not met.

Grand Chief Conductor Garrison said today that he does not believe there is any direct connection between this convention and the trainmen's labor troubles, but admitted the subject might come up for discussion.

Six hundred and fifty divisions in the United States and Canada are represented. The meeting will last two weeks, during which time the organization will be reconstructed and new officers elected.

John Sharp of this city has received a copy of the Sweetwater (Tenn.) Telephone, containing an account of the death of his nephew, Alvin Sharp, aged eight and one-half years. House Cleaning at R. I.

Spring housecleaning is in progress at the Rock Island depot and scaffolding is being erected in the main waiting room for the express purpose of washing the eight big electric light domes in the ceiling. This stupendous undertaking will probably be only a quinquennial event as the lights have not been cleaned since the building was completed, over five years ago.

"Baby Slim" Again in Trouble.

Frank Jones, negro, alias "Baby Slim," alias "Honey Bee," is again in bad with the officers. It has only been a very few days since the "black baby" completed serving a sentence on the county roads, where he had been sent on a vagrancy charge. Saturday night, in company with "his woman," the negro is alleged to have held up a stranger who was wandering about "Two" street in search of excitement. "Baby Slim" is alleged to have shown the stranger $25 worth of excitement in that he forcibly relieved him of that amount of the coin of the realm. Deputy Sheriff Castleman arrested the negro and landed him behind the bars of the county jail.

Asks About Chickasha.

Judge W. W. Clarke, as secretary of the Grady County Commercial and Farm bureau, is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Bertha McBride, librarian of the Carnegie library, at Guthrie, in which the writer seeks information and asks for literature descriptive of Grady county and Chickasha. The writer says, in part: "There are a number of strangers from other states who make our library a stopping place between trains, who might become interested if they could secure literature describing your industries. Does your organization send out complimentary subscriptions of your daily and weekly papers? If so we would like to be placed on your list. I assure you I will take great pleasure in giving any material you may send a prominent place in our reading rooms."

Moved for Longer Ride.

Judge T. P. Moore stated this morning that the reason assigned by some with evident malice that he moved his office from its location in the Tye building to its present place in the Elks' building just in order that he could get a block "more ride" from the street car company for his fat nickel, is an erroneous one. "Of course," said the judge, "as it now stands I do get to ride one block further each day for the five cents fare, or approximately two miles further each way during the month for the same amount of money—five cents a throw, but I always walked down to that corner to take the car, even when I was in my old office. The change of location just saves me that extra walk of four miles per month in getting the maximum ride for the change spent with the soulless street railway company."

EXPORTS AGAIN SMASH RECORD

Washington, May 3.—According to preliminary returns made public by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, department of commerce, 410 million dollars worth of goods was exported from the United States in March. This exceeds the corrected total for February by seven million dollars and is more goods than any nation ever reported before in any one month. It is 113,000,000 more than the previous March and is nearly double the March average for the preceding five years. In the nine months ending with March exports fell less than $5,000,000 short of $3,000,000,000, thus exceeding by more than $1,000,000,000 the record for the corresponding period of any preceding fiscal year.

March imports amounted to $214,000,000, exceeding by $20,000,000 the previous record of February, by $56,000,000 the total for March, 1915, and by 50 per cent the March average for the preceding five years. Nine months' imports to March 31 last aggregated 1,505 million dollars, compared with 1,214 million last year and 1,402 in 1912-13, the former record year. Of March imports, 67.8 per cent entered free of duty.

The month's export balance was 196 million dollars, compared with 139 million in March, 1916, and 5 million in March, 1914. For the 9 months the present fiscal year to date shows an export balance of 1,411 million dollars, being more than double that of last year and more than three times that of two years ago. Present indications point to an export balance of 2 billion dollars by the end of the fiscal year.

Gold imports during March totaled $9,776,839, compared with $25,620,467 in March, 1915, and $7,842,249 in March, 1914, and for nine months to March 31, 1916, $337,831,231, against $71,887,676 in 1915, and $57,288,712 in 1914. Gold exports in March totaled $10,774,354, compared with $923,891 in March, 1915, and $3,632,049 in March, 1914. Gold exports in the nine months under review aggregated $58,515,929, compared with $141,319,900 last year. Nine months of the current fiscal year show a net inward gold movement of $279,315,202, as against a net outward movement of $69,423,224 in a like period of the preceding year and a net inward gold movement of $10,599,835 in nine months in 1913-14.

AMERICAN COUPLE IN MIDST OF MAN EATING TIGER HUNT

By United Press.

Peking, May 8.—If all has gone well with them since they left here April 10th to hunt big game for the New York Museum of Natural History, young Prof. Roy Chapman Andrews and his bride, formerly Miss Yvette Borup, daughter of Major Henry Borup, U. S. A., and sister of the late George Borup, arctic explorer, should be in the midst of their man-eating tiger hunt in the heart of the Bohai mountains, 300 miles inland from the Strait of Formosa, today.

Andrews and his bride are in one of the wildest regions of uncharted Asia, where no white woman and few white men ever have gone before. The region abounds in big game of all kinds and there are cannibalistic tribes to be feared also.

When she left here Mrs. Andrews wore khaki knickerbockers just as the men wore, and carried an automatic pistol for self-defense and a rifle as well, to help collect the specimens and provide food for the larder.

Rev. Perry L. Caldwell at Fut Sing, wrote so convincingly of the man-eaters that Prof. Andrews was inclined to believe the missionary has really discovered a new species.

These terrors of the jungle hang about the dwelling places of the coolies and often make a meal off a worker in the fields or snatch away a screaming baby whose careless mother has left it unguarded too long.

As the missionary wrote: "They are of high size, maltese brown in color, with broad stripes of black, ferocious to the last degree and not a bit afraid of a man with a gun—they will charge him every time." The Andrews' expect to be gone about a year.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

Saturday afternoon Dan Cupid unfurled his wings and spread their shadows over the office of Court Clerk Newman, until three happy couples had been supplied with marriage permits. Those licensed to wed were: A. W. Henry, aged 24, of Verdun, to Miss Irene Blake, aged 18 of Oklahoma City; Herman Goodwin, aged 35, of Verdun, to Miss Nettie Pearl Williams, aged 20, of Chickasha; Samuel S. Putney, aged 32, to Miss Maude A. Dikeman, aged 30, both of Oklahoma City. Judge T. P. Moore being called in performed the marriage ceremony for the first and last named couples.

DRAGGED UNDER HARROW

Frank Navotney, a farmer living four miles north of Chickasha, was the victim in a runaway this morning but fortunately escaped serious injury. He was driving a team of horses to a harrow, when the animals became frightened and ran, dragging him under the harrow for 100 yards. A physician was summoned but it is thought Mr. Navotney's injuries consist of a few scratches and bruises.
